

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

The Heart's Cry.

If I only knew, if I only knew—Whether for her the skies are blue; Whether for her the wind blows clear In the same sweet manner that pleased her here.

Whether for her the stars shine bright,
The stars that she smiled at every night;
If the old, fond stories are false or true—
If I only knew, if I only knew!

If I only knew, if I only knew—
If ready for passing her sweet soul grew In an instant's space, or was drawn away.

Silently, steadily, day by day, Loosening ever the bonds of sense, Yielding the Here for the unknown Till it slipped with a smile the Strange Gates through—

If I only knew, if I only knew!
If I had but the faintest, slightest clue To the mystery laid with your form away, Yet hauntingly close to my soul to stay, To the wonderful region that lies between

The I know and the Land Unseen, That shuts from my vision your larger view—

If I only knew, if I only knew!

zine.

Williams—Patton.

The wedding of Miss Sallie Taylor Patton, of Blacksburg, Va., daughter of the late Colonel W. M. Patton, to Dr.
John Edward Williams, professor of mathematics at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, took place quietly on Monday, August 28, in the home of the bride's mother at Blacksburg. The widespread popularity and prominence in social connection of the contracting parties invested the nuptials with an unusual degree of interest.

Gwathmey—Taylor.

In the home of the bride's sister Mrs.
Harry Redmond, of Asheville, N. C., on Thursday, August 25, Miss Lucy B.
Taylor, daughter of the late John William Taylor, of King William county, will be married to Judge Owen O. Gwathmey, foster brother of Hanover and King William counties, for the State senate.
Owing to recent bereavement in the family, the ceremony will be very quiet.

Wedding Announcement.

Announcement has been made of the approaching marriage of Miss Eunice Hill Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
William Alexander Walker, of No. 9, North Belvidere Street, to Mr. William Lewis Holt, of Lynchburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Frederick Holt, of that city. The celebration which will take place September 11th, will mark one of the prettiest home weddings of the early autumn.

Hay-Ride and Picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Smith, of "Horn Quarter," King William county, entertained in a delightful fashion Monday afternoon of this week, in honor of their little son, Master Forrester Smith, and a number of his juvenile friends from Richmond and the "Horn Quarter" neighborhood.

By invitation, the little guests assembled at Hanover Courthouse where their joyful host awaited them in a coach gayly decorated with waving green corntassels and golden red, the horses being dressed with white robes and having roses of bright yellow ribbons on their bridles. Beside the coachman, a bugler, in green and white, made the air resound with his merry "Horn Quarter" and added to the hilarious enjoyment of Master Forrester and his company.

When "Horn Quarter" was reached, all sorts of out-of-door sports and pastimes engaged the attention of the little people. Mr. and Mrs. Smith and several friends lending their aid in the carrying out of a charmingly devised programme of pleasure. "Teddy Roosevelt," Master Forrester's pony, was called into requisition, and rides around the lawn delighted many of the children present.

The table was spread and refreshments served on the lovely lawn which helps to render "Horn Quarter" one of the handsomest homes in the section where it is located.

Table decorations in yellow, green and white were most artistically arranged sprays of autumn flowers and cornucopia of the August idea of harvest and plenty. An immense sun-flower bowl in the center, filled with luscious fruits, had yellow ribbons radiating to each corner, where a sunflower rosette fan held them in place.

The sunflowers were pulled when the lawn fête was ended, and from the big bowl came a dainty souvenir for every guest. A boat carved from a watermelon and flying a patriotic pennant, above its charge of golden apple grapes and bananas, was noticeable among other pretty decorations. A little stretch of imagination might have sent the mind back to the days of the "Mayflower," or the "Discovery," and to the times when the first August festival might have been kept in America, under just such spreading trees and upon such emerald turf as in the "Horn Quarter" lawn boasts to-day.

In additional idealism, peonies reposed in corn-cob canoes, and loaves were eaten from muskellong saucers.

Those who partook of Master Forrester's hospitality in hayride and lawn lawn picnic were: William and Addison Hagan, Carroll and Whitman Lathrop, Harry Spence, Jr., and John Springer Gray, of Richmond; Mary McGee, of Arlington; John and Mary Gravit, Alva Moran, John and Dixon Collins, Mattie Bullock, Julian and Barton Woolfolk, Vincent and Guy Ansell, Buford Beach, Katherine and Josephine Winston, William and Howard Taylor.

Constantine—Trigg.

The wedding of Miss Mary Blanche Trigg, of Abingdon, Va., to Mr. Constantine Constantine, of Birmingham, Ala., will be celebrated Thursday, August 31st. Miss Trigg, who is one of the most attractive young girls in Abingdon, is well known in Richmond. The gentleman she is to marry is a graduate in medicine of the Johns Hopkins University. He will take his bride with him to Germany, where he will spend three years perfecting himself in his profession.

Approaching Wedding.

Announcement is made at Plattsburg, New York, of a marriage of interest to be celebrated at that place, September 27th, when Miss Helen Hyde, daughter of Dr. R. E. and Mrs. Hyde, of Plattsburg, will be wedded to Lieutenant John Wo-

The Night Has a Thousand Eyes.

By FRANCIS WILLIAM BOURDILLON.

Francis William Bourdillon was born 1852 in England. He was educated at Oxford and later was tutor to the sons of Prince and Princess Christian.

HE NIGHT has a thousand eyes,
And the day but one;
Yet the light of the bright world dies
With the dying sun.

The mind has a thousand eyes,
And the heart but one;
Yet the light of a whole life dies When love is done.

This series began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, October 11, 1903. One is published each day.

Miss Wright Engaged.

The Washington Post of Sunday, August 27th, says:
"General and Mrs. Marcus J. Wright announce the engagement of their daughter, Pauline Casey Wright, to Mr. Walter W. Dinwiddie, of Charlottesville, Va."
"Mr. Dinwiddie is of the old Virginia colonial family of that name, and is attached to the staff of the United States Naval Observatory in Washington. He is now with the Observatory expedition in North Africa, to observe the eclipse of the sun in North Africa."

Personal Mention

Miss Mary Hunter Bethell, of Danville, Va., and Miss Elizabeth Alston, of Chayton, Ala., are the guests of Miss Mary Drake.

It has been ascertained by those having the matter in charge that, if as many as twenty-five Virginia delegates decide to go to the convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, assembling for October in San Francisco, the comfort and advantage of a special car can be obtained for daughters from Richmond, Norfolk and other points in Virginia. Delegates desiring to go should send their names at once to Mrs. James W. Leitch, of Norfolk, Va., or to Mrs.
W. H. Yawter, Highland Park, Richmond, Va.

Miss Cornelia S. Adair is spending the month of August with her friend, Miss Sue Ambler, of "The Dell," Fauquier county, Va.

Miss C. S. Taylor, of No. 25 South Third Street, will be at Hotel "The Air," Newcastle, for the remainder of the session.

Miss Sadie Tabb, of this city, attended one of the prettiest of August get-togethers given last week by the young gentlemen of Lawrenceville, Va., in Roney's Hall, that place.

Miss Augusta Daniel, who has been travelling through the continent of Europe this summer, with Mrs. Virginia Newton, was, when last heard from, at Berlin. She and Mrs. Newton intended going from Berlin to Denmark and Norfolk. Miss Daniel will return about the middle of September and take up her classes for young girls and married ladies early in October.

Former Senator and Mrs. Charles J.
Faulkner, of "Boyville," near Martinsburg, W. Va., accompanied by a large party of friends, will make an automobile tour through Virginia. Stops will be made at Natural Bridge, Lexington, Charlottesville and other points of interest. Senator and Mrs. Faulkner entertained lavishly at their Buckroe Beach Cottage, during the early summer.

Miss Mary Palmer is the guest of the Misses Early, of Madison Street, Lynchburg, Va.

At the Berryville Horse Show, after the riding, Miss Elizabeth Hurkamp, of Fredericksburg, Va.; Misses Beale and Eleanor Conrad, of Winchester, chaperoned by Mrs. Shirley Carter and Mrs.
Harry H. Baker, of that town, were handsomely entertained at dinner in the private car of Messrs. Needles and Smith are spending some time with Mrs.

L. B. Smith, of Hampton, Va.

Mr. Herbert B. Pollard, of Portsmouth, is visiting Mr. W. T. Pollard, in Richmond.

The North Carolina correspondent of the New York Herald says, under date of August 25th:
"At Wilson a charming entertainment was given Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Anderson, for their nieces, the Misses Roberts, of Richmond."

Miss Julia Bldgood, after a month spent at Miss Pollock's cottage, Virginia Beach, joined a house party in Lawrenceville, Va.

Mrs. Armistead Borland and children, of Norfolk, have returned to their home after a visit to Mrs. Borland's mother, Mrs. Myers, in this city.

LADY INJURED.

Carriage Turned Over On Steep Hill—House Burned.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ELLENBERSON, VA., August 28.—Mrs.
Gray, mother of Dr. Gray, who lives near Allen's Station, was seriously hurt in a runaway accident last Thursday.
One of her arms was broken and she was otherwise severely injured. The doctor's sister was also injured, but not seriously. The horse became unmanageable going down a steep hill, running away and upsetting the carriage. Mrs.
Gray is getting along as well as could be expected. Dr. Deitrick assisted Dr.
Gray in setting the broken arm.

A dwelling house belonging to Caroline Ivins, a colored woman, was burned down by a defective flue one day last week.
Loss, about five hundred dollars. There was no insurance. This was a great loss to her, as it represented the savings of a lifetime, which she had accumulated by washing.

Messrs. W. C. Newman and Brother, of this place, are building a brick store on West Broad Street. They have just completed two dwellings in Falmouth, all of which are being built as an investment.

AMELIA COURT.

Indictment for Placing a Saw Mill Too Near Public Road.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
AMELIA, VA., August 28.—Judge Walter A. Watson opened the postponed Amelia Court here this morning. Quite a number of attorneys were on hand. A special grand jury indicted R. W. Winfree for placing a saw-mill too near the public road at Beville's Bridge, the complaint being made by Rector Virginus Wrenn, of the Episcopal Church whose horse was badly frightened while he was driving a lady past the mill.

A grand jury also brought four indictments against Charles Pitchford for selling whiskey at Jetersville.
The court granted a writ to S. J. Mann and B. S. Bell to distill brandy at the farm of S. J. Mann, near Rodolph.
The resignation of B. I. Grigs, game warden for Giles district, was accepted.
A. Anderson was appointed game warden for Leigh district in place of Dr.
P. E. Anderson, who resigned.

Court will continue several days.

FAUQUIER TRAGEDY.

John Lunsford Kills Daniel Dawson
On Account of Old Quarrel.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) VALENTON, VA., August 28.—The facts in the shooting episode at Half Way, Va., on Friday have just reached here. Subsequent to some bad feeling between Daniel Dawson and John Lunsford, the latter appeared in the village store and found Dawson whittling a stick.

"Is that the knife you intend to use upon me?" inquired Lunsford.
"No," replied the man with the knife.
Lunsford intended to close the knife Dawson drew a revolver, but Lunsford ran a mile and a half to his home, procured a shotgun and returned to find his man in a negro woman's yard.
Forty shot entered Dawson's body, several penetrating the lungs, Dawson is dying, and Lunsford has escaped.
